20 INTRODUCTION

21 Respondents California Harvest Fund, LLC (“CHF”) and Jason Turchin (“Turchin”) as 22 owner (collectively “Respondents”), are the subjects of the California Department of Cannabis 23 Control’s default decision of October 29, 2025, which revoked Respondents’ California
24 cannabis licenses, numbered C11-0001995-LIC (Distribution) and DCC-10005051 25 (Manufacturing). (Default Decision and Order, p. 4.) Turchin “moves to vacate the Default 26 Decision and Order against him.” (Motion to Vacate, p. 1.) The motion does not purport to 27 be brought on behalf of the respondent licensee, CHF.

28 For the reasons explained below, the motion is denied.

1 FACTUAL BACKGROUND

2 On July 15, 2025, Department inspectors conducted an inspection of CHR's premises
3 related to its distribution license (C11-0001995-LIC) and manufacturing license (DCC-4 10005051) in response to a complaint received the previous week. (Investigation Report, 5 Default Package, p. 145.) According to Turchin, he cooperated with the investigation (but was 6 not physically present), and at some point during the inspection process he provided an email 7 address to a Department representative. (Turchin Decl., ¶ 5.)

8 On or about September 29, 2025, Respondents were served by Certified and First-9 Class Mail with copies of Accusation No. DCC25-0001410-INV, and the accompanying 10 Statement to Respondent, Notice of Defense, and Request for Discovery and Discovery 11 Statutes at Respondents' address of record which is required to be reported and maintained 12 with the Department. (Gov. Code, §§ 11507.5, 11507.6, and 11507.7.) Respondents' address 13 of record was and is: 15023 Ramona Blvd., Baldwin Park, CA 91706. (Default Decision and 14 Order, p. 2; Declaration of Jason Turchin ("Turchin Decl."), ¶ 4.) The Notice to Respondent 15 advised Respondents of their hearing rights as follows:

16 Unless a written request for a hearing signed by you or on your behalf is delivered or 17 mailed to the Department, represented by Deputy Attorney General Matthew S. Beasley, 18 within fifteen (15) days after a copy of the Accusation was personally served on you or 19 mailed to you, you will be deemed to have waived your right to a hearing in this matter and the Department may proceed upon the Accusation without a hearing and may take action thereon as provided by law.

20 (Notice to Respondent, p. 1.) Respondents did not return a Notice of Defense or otherwise 21 request a hearing to challenge the Accusation. (Default Decision and Order, p. 2.)

22 During the relevant period, Turchin's residence address was in the State of Florida at 23 3225 S MacDill Ave., Apt 163, Tampa, FL 33629, and from June 2025 through November 5, 24 2025, Turchin never returned to California. (Turchin Decl. ¶ 3.) Turchin states that he did not 25 receive the Accusation or any notice of hearing from the Department because, according to 26 Turchin, the Respondents' address of record was "occupied by a subtenant hostile to my 27 company," and "[a]ny mail sent to that address did not reach me." (Turchin Decl., ¶ 4.) 28 Turchin's motion further discloses that the address of record was "a location where Mr.

1 Turchin no longer exercised control and where an antagonistic occupant had every motive to 2 withhold it.” (Motion for Relief, p. 5.) Nowhere does Turchin contend that the Accusation 3 was not received at CHF’s record address, at 15023 Ramona Blvd., Baldwin Park, CA 91706, 4 or by CHF.

5 The Notice of Default and related documents in the Default Package were sent to 6 Respondents by certified mail to the address of record, and by email. (Proof of Service, 7 Default Package, p. 67; Turchin Decl., ¶ 6.) Turchin received the Default Decision by email 8 on October 29, 2025. (Turchin Decl. ¶ 6.) Turchin filed a timely motion to vacate the default 9 with the Department by email on November 5, 2025, pursuant to Government Code section 10 11520, subdivision (c).

11 LEGAL ANALYSIS

12 Turchin contends that the Department’s service of the Accusation was inadequate 13 because he never actually received it, and for this reason he was denied the constitutional right 14 of due process. (Motion to Vacate, p. 4 [describing the Department’s default decision as 15 “void” because effective service of the Accusation was never made].) This contention is not 16 merited and is belied by the facts conceded in Turchin’s motion and declaration and is not 17 supported by binding appellate authority. It is well established that due process requires only 18 that notice must be “reasonably calculated to apprise the licensee of impending action.” (GC
19 Brothers Entertainment LLC v. Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control (“GC Brothers”) 20 (2nd Dist. 2022) 84 Cal.App.5th 1019, 1030 [citing Evans v. Department of Motor Vehicles 21 (1994) 21 Cal.App.4th 958, 970].) The Department’s service of the Accusation satisfied this 22 standard.

23 Having provided proper notice of the Accusation, and lawfully issued a Default 24 Decision following the failure to request a hearing, the Department must now decide whether 25 good cause exists to vacate the default and whether the Department should grant or deny the 26 motion to vacate. The Department concludes that Turchin has failed to establish good cause, 27 and declines to vacate the Default Decision.

28 ///

1           A.     The Department’s Default Decision was Proper

2           The Department followed all statutory and regulatory requirements for the service of 3           the Accusation and for issuing a Default Decision following Respondents’ failure to request a 4           hearing.

5           California cannabis licensees are required by Department regulation to maintain 6           current contact information with the Department and to notify the Department of any change 7           to contact information “within 14 calendar days of the change.” (4 Cal. Code Regs. § 8           15023(e).) Under such a regulatory scheme, the Administrative Procedures Act provides for 9           the service of notice as follows:

10           The accusation . . . and all accompanying information . . . adversely affecting the rights 11           of the respondent shall be . . . served personally or by registered mail . . . . Service by 12           registered mail shall be effective if a statute or agency rule requires the respondent to 13           file the respondent's address with the agency and to notify the agency of any change, 14           and if a registered letter containing the accusation . . . and accompanying material is 15           mailed, addressed to the respondent at the latest address on file with the agency.

16           (Gov. Code, § 11505, subd. (c).) The Department delivered the Accusation by certified mail 17           to Respondents’ record address (Certificate of Service, Default Package, p. 42) as authorized 18           by Business and Professions Code, section 26013.5 and Government Code, section 11505.

19           In GC Brothers, the Second District Court of Appeal addressed the revocation of a 20           night club’s alcoholic beverage license during the covid pandemic, when ABC allegedly knew 21           the night club was shuttered, and notice of the accusation was not received because the postal 22           service had stopped deliveries. (GC Brothers, 84 Cal.App.5th at pp. 1024-1025.) The court of 23           appeal nevertheless ruled that “service by mail satisfied due process even if the accusation was 24           never received, and supported the Department's decision to find Petitioner in default, and 25           thereupon to revoke its license.” (GC Brothers, 84 Cal.App.5th at p. 1030.) The GC Brothers 26           decision follows a long line of other appellate cases that reach the same conclusion, on similar 27           facts, and hold that due process is satisfied when notice is “reasonably calculated” to apprise a 28           licensee of impending action. (Ibid. See Hansen v. Board of Registered Nursing (4th Dist.
2012) 208 Cal.App.4th 664 [default upheld following service by certified mail], Miller Family Home, Inc. v. Department of Social Services (“Miller Family Home”) (3rd Dist. 1997) 57

1 Cal.App.4th 488 [default upheld following service by certified mail pursuant to DSS
2 regulation requiring notice of address change]; Baughman v. Medical Board (2nd Dist. 1995)
3 40 Cal.App.4th 398 [default upheld following service by certified mail and Medical Board 4 regulation required notice of address change]; Evans v. Department of Motor Vehicles 5 (“Evans”) (1994) 21 Cal.App.4th 958 [upholding APA’s default procedures as constitutional].
6 See also 7 Witkin, Summary 11th Const Law § 726 (2025).)

7 Under GC Brothers, and the precedents it rests upon, the Department’s Default 8 Decision complied with the Administrative Procedures Act and the Business and Professions 9 Code, and did not deprive Respondents of due process.

10 B. Respondent Turchin has Not Established Good Cause to Vacate the Default
11 Decision

12 The Administrative Procedures Act provides that an agency may grant relief from a 13 default based on “good cause.” Turchin has not established good cause to grant the motion to 14 vacate the Default Decision. The Administrative Procedures Act provides for relief from 15 default as follows:

16 Within seven days after service on the respondent of a decision based on the 17 respondent’s default, the respondent may serve a written motion requesting that the 18 decision be vacated and stating the grounds relied on. The agency in its discretion may 19 vacate the decision and grant a hearing on a showing of good cause. As used in this subdivision, good cause includes, but is not limited to, any of the following:

20 (1) Failure of the person to receive notice served pursuant to Section 11505.

21 (2) Mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect. The Department does not find 22 good cause as defined by the statute.

23 (Gov. Code § 11520, subd. (c), emphasis added.) Turchin’s motion to vacate rests upon the 24 first good cause prong in subdivision (c)(1), that Turchin “was never given actual notice of the 25 underlying proceeding.” (Motion to Vacate, p. 1.) Significantly, the statute does not require 26 “actual” notice, and Turchin does not include a contention that CHF failed to receive the 27 Accusation. Nor does he contend that the Respondents’ record address failed to receive the 28 Accusation. These gaps in Turchin’s contentions are fatal to Turchin’s claim of good cause

1 based on lack of receipt. Delivery of the Accusation by certified mail, to the record address, 2 must be understood to constitute receipt and to complete the Department's service obligation.

3 In the GC Brothers case, after finding that ABC's undelivered certified mail satisfied 4 due process, the court of appeal nevertheless ruled that it was an abuse of discretion for the 5 ALJ to deny the respondent a hearing. Relying on public policy considerations favoring 6 decisions on the merits, the court of appeal construed section 11520, subdivision (c), so that 7 the "the only requirement for relief from default is that there be a 'showing' of good cause," 8 which was satisfied by the licensee's mere "contention" that the notice was not received—9 regardless of whether the contention was supported by evidence. (GC Brothers, 84 10 Cal.App.5th at pp. 1032-1033; but see Evans, 21 Cal.App.4th at 974 ["bald assertions of no 11 notice" not sufficient], Miller Family Home, 57 Cal.App.4th 488, 494 [indicating that a mere 12 contention that notice was not received is inadequate in the absence of evidence of an 13 explanation].)<sup>1</sup> The court of appeal's construction is difficult to square with the plain 14 language of the statute which indicates that even in the presence of good cause, an agency 15 maintains discretion regarding whether to vacate a default. And the exercise of such discretion 16 would presumably require evidence describing the circumstances that led to a lack of notice.

17 Regardless, GC Brothers is distinguishable both legally and factually from Turchin's 18 motion here. First, under ABC regulations notices are sent to a licensee's premises, unless the 19 licensee elects a different contact address.<sup>2</sup> Apparently the GC Brothers licensee had not 20 made such an election because the notice was addressed to the licensee's premises. (GC 21 Brothers, 84 Cal.App.5th at p. 1025.) In contrast, cannabis licensees always have an 22 affirmative duty under Department regulations to maintain current contact information in the

23 <sup>1</sup> The Evans and Miller Family Home decisions are based on facts that arose before the effective date of the 1995 24 amendments to Government Code section 11520 that added the current versions of subdivisions (b) and (c). (See Senate Bill No. 523 (1995-1996 Reg. Sess.), § 46.)

25 <sup>2</sup> "For the purpose of subdivision (c) of Section 11505 of the Government Code, notices which are required to be 26 served by registered mail may be served by certified mail pursuant to Section 8311 of the Government Code, and 27 shall be mailed to the licensee at the premises for which his license is issued. Any licensee who desires to have such notices mailed to him at an address other than his licensed premises shall file with the department a specific 28 request for that purpose, and in such case notices shall be sent to the licensee at such address. Such licensee shall notify the department of a change in address, and specifically request the department to mail notices to the changed address." (4 Cal. Code Regs. 145.)

1 Department's records. (4 Cal. Code Regs. § 15023(e).)

2 Second, the GC Brothers motion was brought on behalf of both the individual owner 3 and the entity licensee and specifically contended that neither the individual owner nor the 4 licensed entity received "any Accusation or any other document regarding revocation" because 5 the premises was closed during the pandemic and mail service was halted. (GC Brothers, 84 6 Cal.App.5th at p. 1026, n. 1.) In contrast, here it is only Turchin that moves to vacate the 7 default, not the licensed entity, CHF. It is unclear how vacating the default could provide 8 meaningful relief to the owner but not the licensed entity.

9 Third, in GC Brothers the licensee could contend that the accusation was not received 10 because mail service to the premises was halted during the pandemic. In contrast, there is no 11 indication, and neither Turchin nor CHF contend, that the Accusation failed to reach the 12 Respondents' record address—which likely explains why the motion is brought by Turchin 13 alone based on his Florida residence.

14 Fourth, the core explanation for Turchin's contention that he failed to "actually" 15 receive the notice is that the premises was "occupied by a subtenant hostile to my company" 16 (Turchin Decl. p.7, ¶ 4), was "a location where Mr. Turchin no longer exercised control[,] and 17 where an antagonistic occupant had every motive to withhold it" (Motion for Relief, p. 5).
18 These revelations do not establish good cause. Under the Department's regulations licensees 19 are responsible for their premises and the acts of their agents:

20 In construing and enforcing the provisions of the Act and the regulations in this 21 division, the act, omission, or failure of an agent, officer, representative, or other person 22 acting for or employed by a licensee, within the scope of their employment or office, shall in every case be deemed the act, omission, or failure of the licensee.

23 (4 Cal. Code Regs §15000.5; see also §§ 15000.1 through 15000.4.) Therefore, receipt of the 24 Accusation at the record address by the subtenant is attributable to the Respondents.

25 CONCLUSION

26 The Department's service of the Accusation and Default Decision followed applicable 27 law and were reasonably calculated to apprise Respondents of impending license action.
28 Accordingly, they did not violate Respondents' due process rights.

1 Turchin has not established good cause to vacate the Default Decision on grounds of 2 non-receipt of the Accusation. The motion to vacate and the Turchin Declaration “contends” 3 that Turchin did not “actually” receive the Accusation, but makes no such contention on behalf 4 of CHF. Turchin’s contention is that the Accusation did not reach him in Florida, where the 5 Department had no obligation to direct the Application. Notably, Turchin does not contend 6 that the Accusation failed to reach the Respondents’ record address—which should be 7 understood to constitute actual receipt by both Respondents under Department Regulations.
8 Accordingly, even under the liberal approach to section 11520, subdivision (c)(1), taken by the 9 Court of Appeal in GC Brothers, Turchin’s “contention” of non-receipt does not stand up.

10 The Department cannot ignore that the motion papers unequivocally indicate that the 11 reasons Turchin did not receive the Accusation are all attributable to Turchin himself: he 12 resided in Florida, did not visit California from June through September 2025, he left the 13 licensed premises in the control of a hostile subtenant (whose acts are attributable to 14 Respondents) and lost control of the premises, did not inform the Department of an updated 15 mailing address, and did not make any alternative arrangements to obtain mail delivered to the 16 record address—despite knowing that Respondents were under investigation and 17 acknowledging that mail delivery was a concern: “Any mail sent to that address did not reach 18 me.” (Turchin Decl., ¶ 4.) Granting the motion under these circumstances would render a 19 nullity the Department’s regulatory requirements that contact information is maintained by 20 licensees, and that licensees are responsible for their agents and employees and for what 21 occurs on their premises. Finally, it is not clear how, even if the default is vacated as to 22 Turchin alone, meaningful relief could be granted while CHF’s license remains revoked.

23 For all the foregoing reasons, the motion to vacate the default is denied.
